

Journal Binding

Overview

This is an introductory course ideal for beginners. It explains and allows for the guided practice of the fundamentals of bookbinding. By the end of the course students will have completed a multi-section book for their own use.

This traditional book style is flexible and can be used either as a journal or adapted to make an album/scrapbook.

Who is the workshop suitable for?

Suitable for all levels of experience, and particularly students new to bookbinding.

What will we do?

- Identify the correct specification of materials for the desired size of book
- Complete book block and cover
- Case in

By the end of this course students will have designed and completed an A6 notebook for their own use and should be able to:

- choose appropriate materials for project
- fold & collate papers into sections
- sew French-style
- prepare and lone book spine
- cut boards to book size
- cut covering materials to size
- cover and press books
- put down endpapers and case-in

What course can I do next?

A sewn spine style such as The Wrap, Coptic or Long-stitch, or continue in this style with a quarter binding or Islamic-style binding.
